Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Dean Kranhold knows the great worth and beauty of music in our everyday lives; and,

Whereas, Dean has been a music man all of his life, and after over a half century of performing at weddings, dances, and concerts, and also instructing and teaching music, he no doubt attributes some of his success in life to the soothing influence of song; and,

Whereas, Throughout the years, Dean has given so much of himself to the Dakota area, and it seems only right that this maker of melodies be rewarded and recognized for his fine achievement in the arts; and,

Whereas, For many years, Dean has shared his achievements in the field of music that gives comfort, solace, and joy to all that hear him play, and it is impossible to estimate how many lives he has touched by sharing with us his special gift; therefore, it is for this reason that Dean deserves this special praise and attention; and,

Whereas, Dean Kranhold has been chosen by the Dakota Musician's Association to be inducted into the Dakota Musician's Hall of Fame:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 14, 2003, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
